Dear MTS Board,

Recently I decided to stop by a couple of the locations on strike and spoke to a few Transdev drivers that were both new and old within the company. Being a part of different boards myself, I felt obligated to send this letter to you. It was very disturbing to find out from these drivers how Transdev has treated their employees. Some things are just simply being in-humane honestly. For the drivers I spoke with, regardless of how long they had been with the company they all felt the same way. The ones that I spoke with actually genuinely loved their jobs and working with the public. They said that at times it can be very challenging but at the end of the day they felt that they were put in a position where they could make a difference in lives out there. A simple "hello" to a passenger that may look like they are having a hard day could actually save a life, one driver even bought a passenger having a bad day a soda at one of the break stops. Another driver spoke to a child that was frightened as it was their first day of school and did not yet have any friends at his school, this child ended the bus ride by telling the driver that he made him feel better about going to school. Something so simple but yet so important to our public. However, even if you weigh out the positives with the negative and fearful interactions these drivers experience on a daily basis, MOST people will not do this job for long periods of time especially with the extremely low compensation and with these horrible working conditions, but honestly who can blame them? Let's be honest, many of you and I would most likely not do this job. The truth of the matter is that bus drivers are in high demand and they are doing a public service that we need for so many different reasons. We need to appreciate those that are willing to do this job. There are so many people in the public who physically and/or mentally depend on a bus ride, our public needs your help with helping make the drivers feel appreciated by their employer. The concerns I heard were entirely reasonable. For most of us, we will never understand this feeling but it's a reality for the bus drivers and those some 100,000 that ride the bus daily in our city. You on the board have the influence to make a difference in this difficult situation, the people depend on you to bring this to an end. Even if the options take a little bit of time, they are better than the disservice that has been allowed to go on for years.

Dear MTS Executive Committee members,

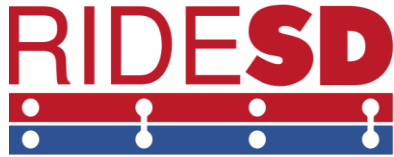

Attached to this email is a letter requesting that the MTS Executive Committee do everything in their power to find a reasonable and timely resolution to the Transdev bus driver strike. The strike is significantly impacting transit riders in South Bay and East County, many of whom depend exclusively on public transit to commute to work and other necessary destinations.

Thank you for your time and commitment to improving public transit in San Diego.

Cheers,

Subject: Request for Resolution of Bus Driver Strike Impacting Transit Service

Dear Executive Committee Members,

I am writing to you on behalf of RideSD, a transit advocacy group dedicated to improving public transportation services in our community. We are deeply concerned about the ongoing strike by bus drivers employed by Trandsdev. This strike has had a significant impact on transit service and is adversely affecting transit riders who rely on your services for their daily transportation needs.

While we understand that the bus drivers are not directly employed by MTS, we strongly urge you to take all necessary actions within your authority to help resolve the strike in a reasonable and timely manner. The disruption caused by the strike is resulting in reduced service frequency, increased wait times, and significant inconvenience for transit riders throughout the community.

As a public transit agency responsible for ensuring reliable and accessible transportation options, it is crucial that you address this issue promptly. We believe that it is in the best interest of both MTS and transit riders to work towards a fair resolution that meets the needs of the bus drivers while also minimizing the impact on transit riders.

We appreciate your attention to this matter and your commitment to providing reliable and efficient transit services. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Zack Defazio Farrell
